

TIMELINE OF FEE-TO-TRUST APPLICATION AND APPEAL

December 2014	The Pueblo of Jemez (POJ) purchased the Handmaidens of the Precious Blood property
February 16, 2016	POJ passed resolution to payoff property and plan for expanded healthcare on the property
February 16, 2016	POJ passed resolution authorizing application to take property into trust
May 6, 2016	The POJ submitted “fee-to-trust” application with the BIA Southwest Regional Director (BIA)
December 16, 2016	POJ amended fee-to-trust application removing commitment to use land solely for healthcare program development
September 1, 2020	BIA sent notice of application to Village of Jemez Springs (VJS)
October 1, 2020	The VJS filed an objection to the application
September 23, 2022	BIA filed Notice of Decision granting transfer of property into trust
October 13, 2022	VJS filed Notice of Appeal with the BIA.
January 12, 2023	VJS filed additional response
February 14, 2023	BIA filed Motion to Remand (vacating previous Notice of Decision)
July 27, 2023	BIA filed Notice of Decision granting transfer of property into trust
August 23, 2023	VJS filed Notice of Appeal with the Department of the Interior, Indian Appeals Board (Appeals Board)
November 27, 2023	VJS filed opening brief with the Appeals Board
January 4, 2024	BIA filed answer brief with the Appeals Board
May 29, 2024	POJ requested that VJS repeal the appeal to the Appeals Board